

Dear CORCON 2017 Attendees, Exhibitors, and Staff:

On behalf of more than 36,000 members worldwide, I extend to you my best wishes for the success of the 2017 NACE International Gateway India Section Conference and Exhibition, CORCON, set for 17-20 September, 2017, in Mumbai.

NACE International is proud to be the Worldwide Corrosion Authority and we are committed to fulfilling our mission of equipping society to protect people, assets, and the environment from the adverse effects of corrosion. We know that we will be successful because we have dedicated members and staff at all levels, all around the world, with great expertise and technical skills, working collaboratively to maintain and grow a community of professionals who: engage and collaborate in a participatory environment to provide direction and strategy for the Association; provide the expertise and required knowledge, skills and abilities to provide world-class programs and services, and; demonstrate commitment and compassion to keep NACE International operating in accordance with our Core Values.

NACE International is the preeminent community for disseminating knowledge, enhancing skills, and expanding the professional networks of corrosion control and asset protection professionals worldwide.

We invite you to attend NACE International's annual conference and exposition, CORROSION, in Phoenix, Arizona, USA, 15-19 April, 2018.

Please join me in congratulating the NACE Headquarters and NIGIS staff on a very successful CORCON 2018. I look forward to meeting you there!

Regards,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "R. Chalker", with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Robert H. Chalker
Chief Executive Officer
NACE International